Seeing he was blocked at that point, he turned and ran around the right end for a touchdown. His kick of the goal put them on even terms with the Virginians.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, VA., November 29.—With the victory over William and Mary at Newport News on November 24. Hampden-Sidney won the football championship in the Eastern division of the Virginia Inter-collegiate Athletic Association. The record for football at Hampden-Sidney this year has been rather remarkable. Out of a student body diminished by Out of a student body diminished by the war conditions, it was able to put in the field the team that lost to V. M. I. by the narrow margin of 14 to 15 and to the V. P. I. by a score of 0 to 12. In the championship series it came through without being scored on, and the games and results are as follows:

Hampden-Sidney vs. Richmond College, 12 to 0.

Hampden-Sidney vs. William and Mary. 20 to 0.

Hampden-Sidney vs. Randolph-Macon, 33 to 0.

33 to 0. Hampden-Sidney vs. Richmond College, 0 to 6, Hampden-Sidney vs. William and Mary, 34 to 0, Hampden-Sidney vs. Randolph-Ma-

Mary. 34 to 0.

Hampden-Sidney vs. Randolph-Macon, 62 to 0.

This record is all the more remarkable when it is recalled that this season was begun without a regular coach, and that before it was over Captain J. W. Warren, equally a fine player and leader, was called away to enter the army service. Much credit is due to all the members of the squadbut special mention should be made of the splendid work of Captain J. W. Warren, of Nashville, of the loyal and efficient service rendered by Charles R. Bugg, of Farmville, an old Hampden-Sidney man, and of M. C. Bowling, of U. T. S., in Richmond, who later in the fall, was willing to give up, temporarily, his work at the seminary in order to coach the team, and so to do his part for his alma mater.

In this connection it is worth recalling that Hampden-Sidney won the football championship in 1915 and tied with Richmond College for first place in 1916. The V. I. A. A. consists of two divisions. Eastern and Western. The Western division is composed of the V. P. I. and Roanoke College, Randolph-Macon, College, William and Mary and Hampden-Sidney. In this association cups are offered for cham-
